

Karína Kalczynska

Karína Kalczynska, born in Warsaw, Poland Dec. 30, 1983, started singing lessons in 1995, and currently is a junior-year student of orchestra and choir conductorship in Bydgoszcz, Poland. She has performed in Portugal, England and numerous cities throughout the United States.

Karína recorded a special CD for Pope John Paul II in 1996 and personally presented it to His Holiness on the occasion of his 50th anniversary of consecration.

In 1998, Karína participated in the 35th Polish National Singing Competition - Opole '98 - the most prestigious singing competition in Poland. She won first prize in "Debuts," and the concert was aired by Polish TV and sky TV Polonia.

Karína also played a role and recorded a sound track in the 1998 biographical film: "Litwo, Ojczyzno Moja" directed by T. Bystram Warsaw. She also received the "Bydgoszcz Citizen of the Year, Junior" award in 1998. Last year, she participated in the "Swing Into Spring Concert" in Buffalo, NY and debut the Karína Kalczynska Band. Karina has launched her own web site: www.karina.kalczynski.pl/

Sharing the Music

A Concert bringing together Polish and American Cultures through the beauty of Music
